Your child will be given a personalised ID card to be carried at all times during the trip. This is pictured above. The card will contain: your child's name, passport, nationality, age, date of birth and the group emergency contact number. It will be pre-populated and given out on the bus on the way to Stansted.

Packing list

- Clothing for temperatures ranging between 7°C and 19°C – ie “layers” to deal with a range of temperatures. Last year it reached low-twenties at the hottest part of the day but it also rained and was quite cool on another day.
- A coat
- Comfortable shoes/ trainers for walking and sports
- T-shirts (nothing too revealing please!)
- Trousers / jeans / sports trousers/ leggings
- Jumpers – it may well be cool in the Youth Hostels – no heating
- Sunscreen
- Camera? Mobile phones permitted – check for roaming with your provider
- Charger
- Pen and small notepad in case you need to write anything down
- Packed tea for Thursday 22nd March – remember you can't take drinks through security, also no foil on food you are taking through security
- Labels on your suitcase
- Clear, sealable, plastic bag containing hand luggage liquids (see notes on luggage)
- Watch / alarm
- Pocket money – suggested amount of no more than 50 euros.
- A few pounds in case you want an extra snack when you get to Stansted.
- Plug adaptor for any electrical items

Check list

- Have you put your hand-luggage liquids in the clear sealable plastic bag? (20cm x 20cm and resealable)
- Have you read and complied with the packing restrictions set out by the airline?
- HAVE YOU GOT YOUR PASSPORT?
- Have you got an EHIC number? (to apply go to <https://www.gov.uk/european-health-insurance-card>)

Ryan Air Baggage policy

Ryan air cabin bag policy

Your small bag (e.g. handbag, laptop etc.) must not exceed 35x20x20cm and should easily fit under the seat in front of you.

Your second 10kg bag must be 55x40x20cm in size and must fit into the sizers at the gate before being tagged and put into the hold free of charge.

Failure to comply will result in a charge of £50 per item at the departure gate and may also lead to delays for all passengers on board.

Liquids in hand baggage

The carriage of liquids, aerosols and gels into the security restricted area of an airport and onboard aircraft is controlled in accordance with current EU Security Requirements.

When passing through airport security screening:

- Liquids carried must be in a container of no more than 100ml (3.4 ounces)
- All liquids should be carried in a single, transparent, re-sealable plastic bag of up to 20cm x 20cm with a total capacity of up to a litre
- You must be able to completely close the bag and be able to fit it in your hand baggage
- The bag of liquids must be taken out of other hand baggage to be screened separately

Liquid medicines

- You are allowed to carry liquid medicine as required for your flight. The medicine does not need to fit in the transparent bag but you should have it ready for inspection by airport security.

Checked baggage allowance.

- ~~€25~~ / £25 per item up to 20 kilos per one-way flight when purchased in advance.
- ~~€40~~ / £40 per item up to 20 kilos per one-way flight if purchased at the airport
- The pooling or sharing of purchased checked baggage allowances is permitted with others included on the same flight reservation when checking in together.
- Checked baggage fees are fees due on purchased checked bags.
- Any passenger exceeding their personal checked baggage allowance will be charged for excess baggage at the rate prevailing on the day of travel. This is currently £11/€11 per kilo (or local currency equivalent).
